

Japanese Education by Media Experts

Upcoming Courses – Fall 2021

Whether you are just beginning your linguistic journey or looking to improve your professional skills, we have something just for you.

Our goal is not for you to become a perfect, near-native speaker, but to become an able, independent and well-rounded participant in Japanese culture.

All courses are online, interactive, based on current Japanese media and taught by professionals in the visualmedia industry.

All courses span a period of 4 weeks and consist of four 2-hour sessions.

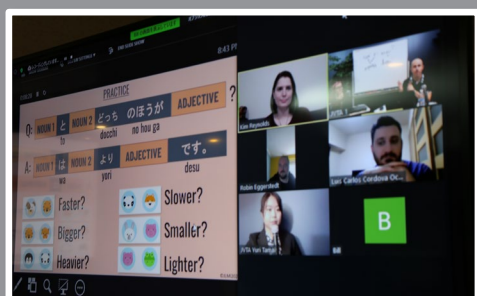

Beginner Course A

Appropriate for beginners and JLPT N4-3.

Start from the beginning. We cover self-introductions, casual conversation and common topics that come up in everyday life. Taught in English with audiovisual aids from popular anime, manga and reality TV shows.

Starting in September 2021

Beginner Course B

Appropriate for beginners and JLPT N4-3.

Building on your skills from Course A, we will continue working on practical, everyday Japanese with speaking and listening as our main focus.

Starting in October 2021

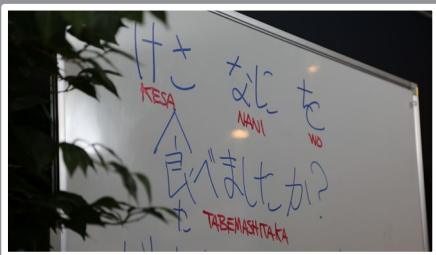

Intermediate Course A

Appropriate for JLPT N3~

We focus more on the stranger parts of Japanese language like idioms, abbreviations, onomatopoeia and phrasal verbs, all aided by our favorite anime.

Starting in October 2021

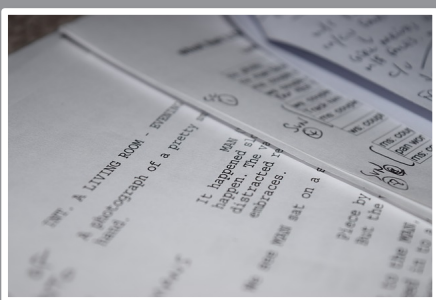

Intermediate Course B

Appropriate for JLPT N3~

In this course, we touch upon regional dialects and more advanced / sensitive topics of conversation.

Starting in November 2021

Visualmedia Script Reading

Appropriate for JLPT N2-N1

This course focuses on the nuance of language from a script-reading perspective. Professional translators will lead this course bilingually for a more immersive experience.

Starting in November 2021

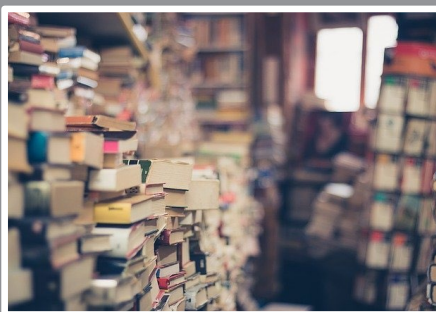

Logical Reading

Appropriate for JLPT N2-N1

This course focuses on the interpretation of the Japanese language from a logical standpoint, leaving the confounding world of contextual nuance behind and diving into the hard, cold facts.

Starting in January 2022

Japanese Literature Analysis

Appropriate for JLPT N2-N1

This course taught by Japanese literature experts highlights the various thematic devices, commonly misinterpreted characters and reading in between vertical lines.

Starting in January 2022

Japanese Formality

Appropriate for JLPT N2-N1

Taught by hiring managers and staff that have been through both sides of the hiring process, this course focuses on interview skills, the appropriate use of honorifics and maintaining relationships on the job.

Starting in January 2022